PREFACE.

We present herewith the catalogue of a fine, though miscellaneous collection, comprising three private collections and some pieces purchased by us while in Europe the past summer, among which the following are worthy of special notice: Ancient Greek tetradrachms of Carthage, Philistis, Alexander IV, Nicomedes II, Gold Medallion or Octodrachm of Arsinoe II, unusually fine series of Ptolemaic copper coins, Edward the Black Prince Pavilion, Charles I, Oxford Three Pound Piece (gold), the immense Cochin-China piece, the splendid line of proof dollars of 1838, 1851, 1852, 1854, 1855, 1856, 1858; 1823 quarter dollar; dimes of 1796, 1797, 1800, 1802; half dimes 1859, 1860; cents 1793, chain; half cents, 1811, 1852; Wood shilling and sixpence, silver; the fine American and Foreign medals, which are unavoidably placed near the end of the sale, among which are rare medals of Oswego, Matanzas, Franklin, Matteson, U. S. for Saving Life, war medals and decorations, and some excellent Numismatic Books.

Collectors will oblige by sending in the bids early.

Orders will be executed by the other regular dealers and ourselves.

Catalogues will be priced after sale for 75 cents.

We guarantee all the coins and medals genuine unless otherwise described.

Respectfully,

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN.

421	1860	With stars. R. same as last. Uncirculated. Mint lustre.

Excessively rare. Of these two pieces, the great rarity is unquestioned, and they should command a large advance on the starting bid of $10. They will be sold separately. A die was made for the dime with stars, of 1860, for the San Francisco mint, and we were the first to discover it some years ago, but no dime of Phila. mint has yet appeared that we know of. The cabinet of the U. S. Mint does not contain either of these pieces.
